Chicken Balls

Tavuk Köftesi

1.10 pounds boneless chicken
1 small onion
3 garlic cloves
3 slices of stale bread
3 tbsp milk
1 egg
1 tbsp butter
8-10 stems of parsley
1 tsp curry
1 tsp black pepper
1 tsp salt

Blend the chicken meat to turn it into ground meat.

Add the grated onion, crushed garlic cloves, milk, egg and salt onto the stale bread slices. Mix it, until the bread slices lose their original shape.

Add ground chicken meat, curry, black pepper and butter onto the mixture. Knead the mixture for about 5 minutes, until make it smooth.

Finally, add finely sliced parsley on it. Knead it for a while more, then place the mixture onto the lowest layer of the refrigerator. Refrigerate the mixture for 1 hour.

At the end of the refrigerating time, pick pieces from the mixture wet your fingertips and shape them.

Place the chicken meatballs onto the greased baking tray, or place them onto the grease-proof paper on the tray, and place the tray which is preheated to 392 F. Bake them, until their surfaces turn to red.

Serve them hot with garniture.

Note: Cumin may be used also, instead of curry while cooking the chicken meatballs.
